

Look out TROUT

there's 7 new Fly Tyers

(Back: Fred Arbuckle, George Reid, Robert Souness, Stewart McLintock Front: Ross Innes, Neil McIvor, Paul Buchanan (Coach), Tam MacGregor)

and 18 new Fly Fishers

ABOUT !

The 1st round of Allandale's very successful Spring fly fishing classes have just finished with both the fly tying and fly fishing introduction classes being very well attended and breaking last year's records. The fly tyers, who had little or no previous experience, tied a range of classics including Pheasant Tail Nymphs, Epoxy Buzzers, Winged Wets and Foam Beetles. The fishers included many anglers who had previously fished before but all managed to improve many areas of their casting and fishing technique. Look out trout!!

If you would like to learn to tie flies or would like to improve any aspect of your casting and fly fishing, the Allandale classes are a very cost effective way to do this.

Go to www.allandaletarn/coaching.htm for further details.

Names being taken now for the next round of classes.